Disney's
THE LITTLE MERMAID

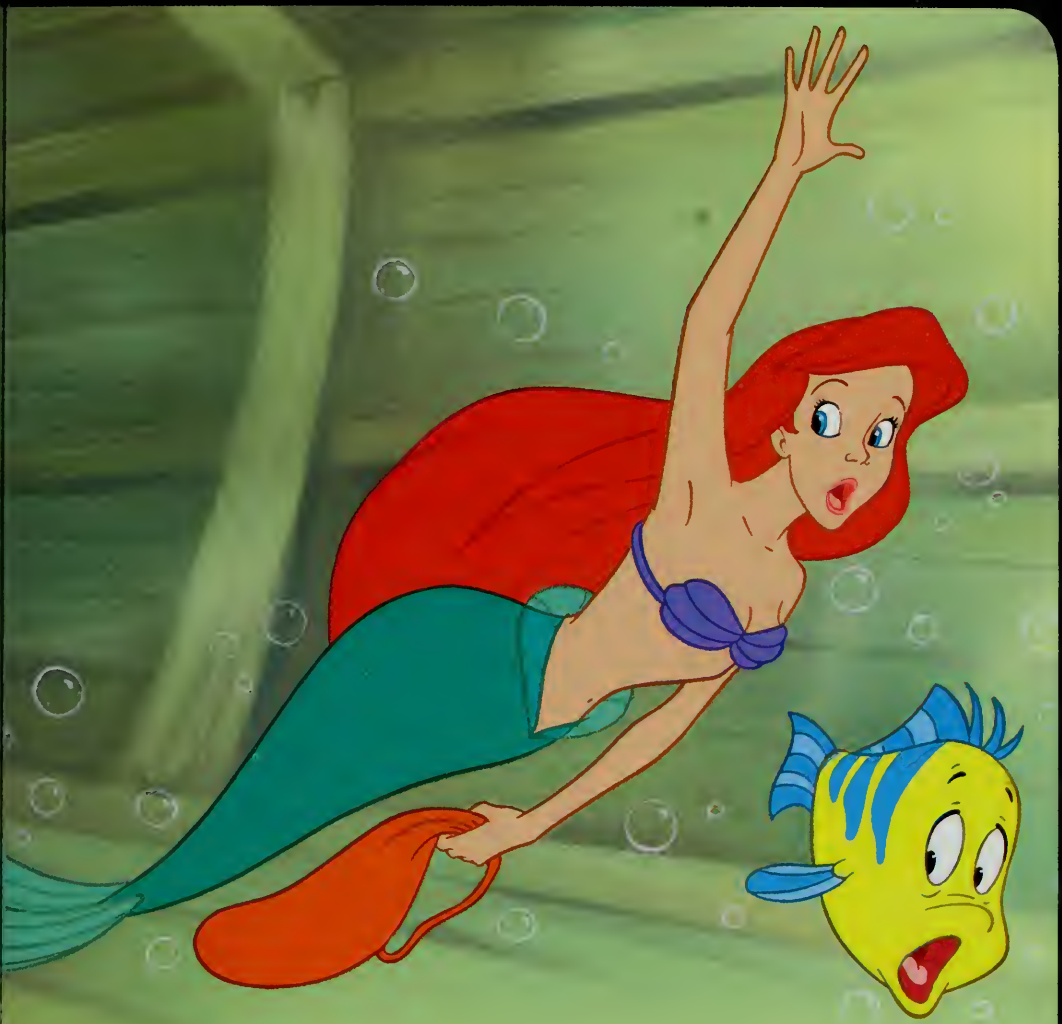
One morning, the Little Mermaid, Ariel, went looking for hidden treasure with her best friend, Flounder.

Ariel was supposed to sing for the first time in front of her father, King Triton, and all the other merpeople, but for now, she was much more interested in sunken ships than her father's concert.



While they searched, Flounder began to get nervous.

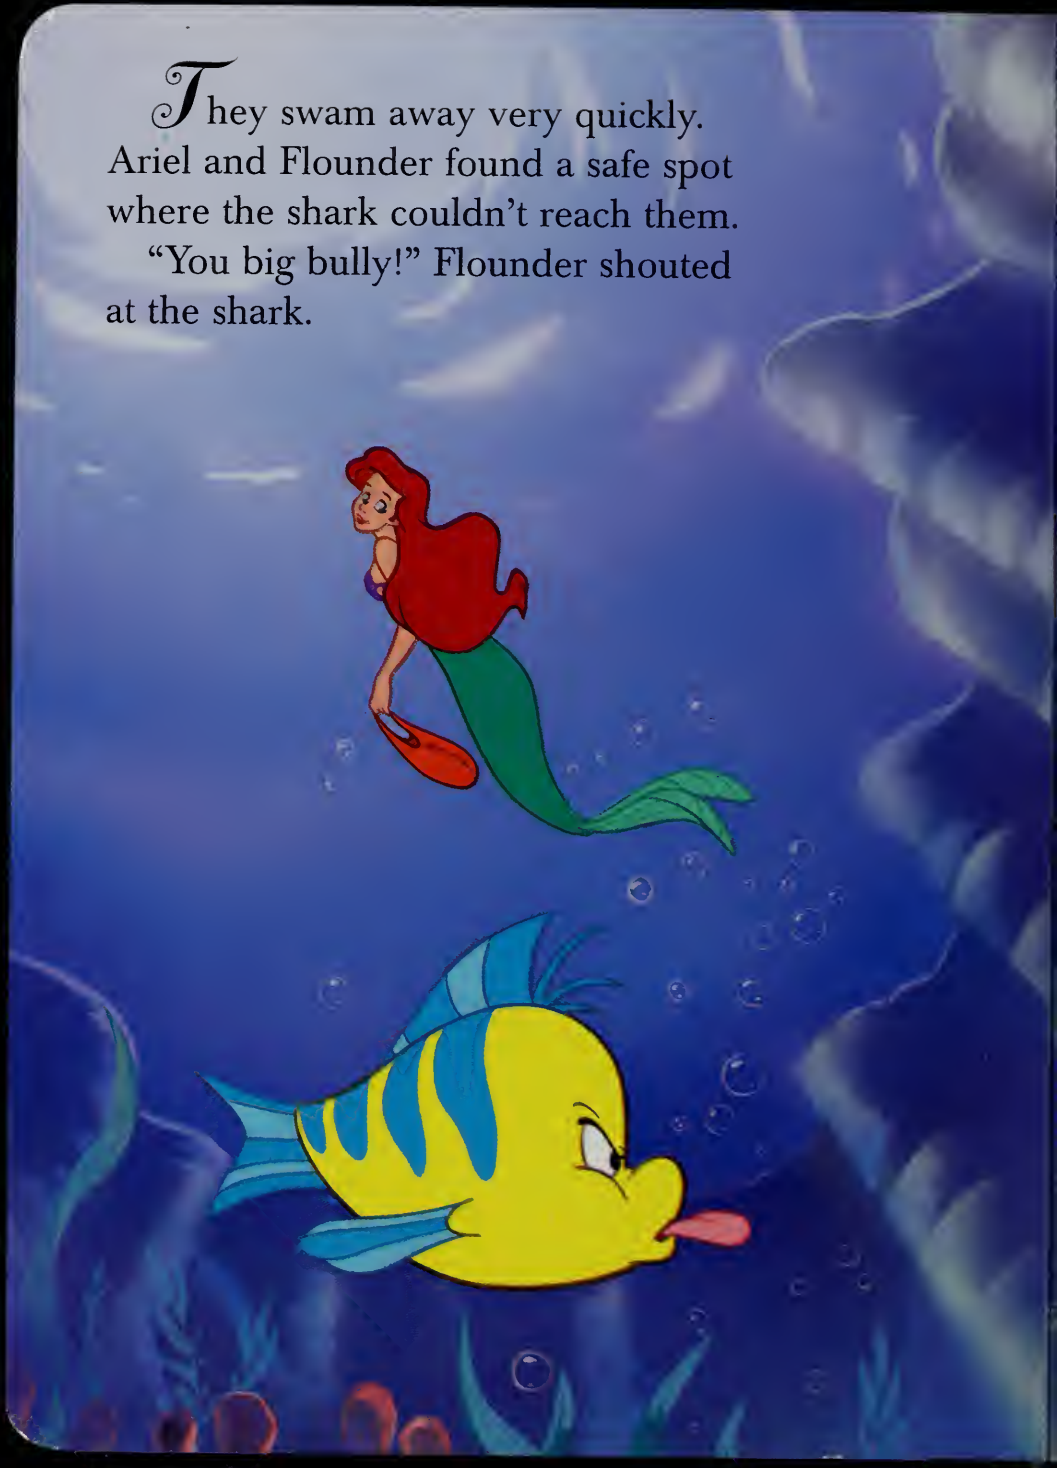
"What was that?" he asked. "Did you hear something?"

Suddenly a very large shark smashed through the side of the ship.

"Swim! A shark!" Flounder cried.

They swam away very quickly. Ariel and Flounder found a safe spot where the shark couldn't reach them.

"You big bully!" Flounder shouted at the shark.



As soon as she was sure that they were a safe distance from the shark, Ariel thanked Flounder for being so brave. Even though he was a very small fish, Flounder had a very big heart–and he was Ariel's best friend under the sea!

After their adventure, Ariel and Flounder headed home, hoping that they would not be too late for her father's concert.

Discover the magic of friendship as Princess Ariel and Flounder go on a grand undersea adventure.

Written by Jennifer Liberts

Random House
www.randomhouse.com/kids/disney

90000
9 780736 413084
ISBN 0-7364-1308

Copyright © 2001 by Disney Enterprises, Inc. All rights reserved under International and Pan-American Copyright Conventions. Published in the United States by Random House, Inc., New York, and simultaneously in Canada by Random House of Canada Limited, Toronto, in conjunction with Disney Enterprises, Inc. RANDOM HOUSE and colophon are registered trademarks of Random House, Inc. Printed in China